The Prosecution Beelde Not to Call Seanter Murphy-Why was He Summoned! Boxes April 2C - The expected sensation in the trial of David A. Dischler did not occur to-day. It was expected that Senator Edward Murphy of Troy, who was subpared by the peorie to testify in this case, would be put on the stand this morning, but District Attorner Klock fold the Senator that they had changed their mind and that he would not be called Sanator Murphy left Rome for Albany on the 1:37 east-bound train. During his stay here the leading Democrats of the city, of both the Cleveland and Hill factions, made friendly calls upon blm.

That the Senator should have been subposnaed in the Dischler case aroused much comnent. The fact is that he knows nothing about the case, and it is a mystery to him why he was summoned. Those in a position to know say that he was subportated to please some of the Cleveland Democrats. Ex-District Attorney Thomas Jones is a Cleveland Democrat, and, as he is assisting the prosecution, the people say it was he who suggested the idea of bringing Mr. Murphy here. There has been so much talk on the subject that Mr. Jones thought it best to send the Senator bone without testifying.

Counsel for the prosecution say that Senator

Murphy was subprenaed to deny the statement, if it should be made, that he gave Discher a letter of introduction to Warden Thayer. Insinuations that such was the fact were made in the trials of Buck and McElwaine for complicity in aiding in the escape of O'Brien. In those trials it was also sought by innuendo and insinuation to make the jury believe that peoinsinuation to make the jury believe that people high in official station were in some way implicated in the escape of O Brien. Thus, while making no direct charges, it was sought to make it appear that Buck and McElwaine were simply hirlings and not fully responsible. This presecting naturally injured the case of the presecution by creating sympathy for the prisoners, and it was to guari against a similar handicap in the Dischler trial that the prosecution wished to have Senator Murphy at liand to refute on the stand any insinuations that might be made relating to himself. Those insinuations, which before were apparently a lawyer's device to nid his client, have been entirely absent in the Dischler trial, hence there was no occasion for Senator Murphy to testify.

hence there was no occasion for Senator Murphy to testify.

The case against Dischler is very weak, as far as the testimony is concerned, and all the important testimony for the people is in. It is not as strong as the case against McElwaine, and he was acquitted. Ex-heeper Buck was put on the stand. He made a poor witness for the people. In many instances he contradicted what he swore in his own trial. There is something peculiar about him. He seems to have lost his memory to a certain extent. It is the general impression that Dischler will be acquitted. His ex-pariner in politics, Mayor Thomas Wheeler of Utica, better known as "Boss" Wheeler, was present at the trial today. Outside of Buck's evidence, nothing of any importance was elicited to-day.

BROOKLYN'S NEW POSTMASTER. Andrew T. Sultivan, a McLaughlin Dem erat, Gets the Place.

Andrew T. Sullivan received a communication resterday morning from Postmaster-General Bissell announcing his appointment Capt. George J. Collins, deceased. This is the first Federal appointment made in Brooklyn. The news of the appointment was received with much gratification by the members of the regular Democracy, and a corresponding amount of disappointment among the Mugwumps and anti-snappers. Mr. Sullivan has been an active member of the regular Democratic organization in the Twenty-first ward since he became a voter, seventeen years ago, and for some time he was its secretary. He resisted all attempts to draw him into the anti-snapper movement last year. Mr. Sullivan was born in Brooklyn thirty-eight years ago, and in 1872 he graduated from St. Francis Xnvier's College.

For the fourteen years following his graduation he was a clerk in the county testion. cratic organization in the Twenty-first ward

For the fourteen years following his gradustion he was a clerk in the county institutions and State Board of Charities. In 1836 Postmaster Joseph C. Hendrix made him cashier, and he retained that place until a few menths ago, when he was appointed Assistant Postmaster on the death of Mr. Smith. On the death of Capt. Collins. a couple of weeks ago, he was designated as acting Postmaster. Both Hugh Melaughlin and Congressman Joseph C. Hendrix strongly urged his appointment. Mr. Sullivan is President of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick of the Eastern District and a member of the Catholic Benevolent Legion.

MR. BRENNAN EXONERATED. The Mayor Bismisses the City Club's Charges Against Him.

Mayor Gilroy announced his findings yesterday on the charges of neglect of duty and inefficiency preferred against Street Cleaning Commissioner Brennan at the instance of the City Club. The Commissioner is exonerated of every accusation.

The Mayor finds that the Commissioner's failure to remove unharnessed vehicles from the streets, vehicles standing in the streets at might without a permit, boxes, barrels, and etner movables, is due to the absence of any provision on the part of the absence of any missioners for the storage and safe keeping of streets he sava:

Streets he sava:

I find that the said Commissioner of Street Cleaning has used every means within his newers to corant he said streets, and has been submed in treasing the principal thoroughfares requires for had and the thoroughfares leading to the various fertiles, he idea many of the other afters, and that is to the streets which he failed to clean, the conditions in the waters and the aimest disparational submedial of the past winter presented difficulties which here insermontable. I therefore find that the charge of neglect of cuty is not sustained.

THE LARUE CONSPIRSOY CASE.

Judgments of Noneutt Entered in Payor of Eight of the Defendants. Conning, N. Y., April 20,-Justice Rumsey. in the Circuit Court this morning, on motion ordered judgments of nonsult in favor of Jennie C'Neid Potter, Oliver M. Warner, Charles O. Green, Charles G. Hutchinson, William Richtmyer, John O. Adsit, Edward B. You-mans, and Roswell R. Moss, defendants in the suit for $250,000 damages brought by Henry Belmout Larue on account of his arrest and imprisonment at the Ovid Insane Asylum. which he claims was done to ruin his business and financial prospects. The Judge said there was no evidence to make any of these defendants parties to the action. Then ex-Assemblyman Macker of Hornellsville opened the case on behalf of the remain-ing defendants. Dr. Charles W. Pilgrim, Chief of Police Little of Elmira, Chief of Police Murof Police Little of Elmira, Chief of Police Murray of Hornellsville, and Dra Flood and Dundas of Elmira. Mr. Macker said that it was the purpose of the defence to show that Lurue was beyond doubt insane at the time of his arrest; that his arrest was legal, and that it was calculated to be for the good of the people with whom Larue would come in contact.

The first witness sworn for the defence was Preston C. Houston of Jamestown, N. Y. He testified to his business relations with Larue in connection with the Mordaunt Frog and Crossing Company, both in Chicago and New York.

Crossing Company, both in Chicago and New York.

Henry L. Ford of Chicago testified to some of Larue's business transactions, and especially to the actions of Larue with an actress in Chicago. He told of Larue's idea to have a home for soubrettes in New Jersey, which would be under the charge of his wife, where young actresses would be educated and where theatrical managers could not reach them unless they would pay them $10 per night for their services.

The dismissal of the complaint against Adsit is regarded as the wiping away of the possibility of a verdict for heavy damages, as he was named as the main defendant in the suit. The case now seems to have resolved itself into an action for faise imprisonment.

PLOT TO KIDNAP AN HEIRESS.

BALTIMORE, April 20.-Dunbar Walton. colored, alias Jacob Calhoun, and Louis E, Frank. both of Georgia, were locked up vesterday Toomer, an heiress and daughter of Nathan Toomer, a wealthy colored resident of Georgia.

Calhoun afterward furnished $2,500 ball and was released. The attempted abduction was most daring. including a bribe offered Squire John Gensler to issue a fictitious summons for the appear-including a bribe offered Squire John Gensler to issue a fictitious summons for the appearance of the girl at court, when the two men purposed carrying the girl off, as her father says, for immoral purposes.

The girl whom it is alleged Calhoun and Frank attempted to kidnap, is at St. Prancis' Colored Catholic Orphan Asylum and Academy. She is almost white in color, about 14 years of age, and pretty. Her stepmother, who was Maria Lubank, recently received a fortune of $350,000 through the bequest of a white man in Atlanta. Mrs. Eubank by act of the Georgia Legislature had her name changed to Dixon, and then married Nathan Toomer. A auit was instituted at the time by which Mamie Toomer came into possession of $50,000.

Charles B. Dixon, son of Mrs. Toomer and a stepbrother of Mamie, desired to marry her. She did not object and her atepmother favored the match. To prevent this Mr. Toomer brought the girl here and placed her in the asylum. It is said that Dixon offered $15,000 to Toomer if he would give the girl up. Walton and Frank came from Augusta a few days ago, and it is alleged concocted the plan of issuing a fictitious summons for the girl's appearance at court. Both were to bring the girl from the institution, Frank acting as cab driver and then kidnap her.

Toomer told, Police Captain Baker that his refusal to allow young Dixon to marry his daughter was because he believed Dixon is already married. He added that he believed Walton, alias Calhoun, was agent for some disorderly house.

A writ of habeas corpus for Mamie Toomer's orderly house.
A writ of habeas corpus for Mamie Toomer's release from the asylum has been sued out.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., April 26.-Fish pirates and game constables had an exciting adventure on the Oswegatchie River, near Ogdensburg. Monday night, as a result of which Game tured Edward Miller and John Langley while tured Edward Miller and John Langley while in the act of using a net in the river for the purpose of catching pike. The men have been sent to jail for ten days. Hundreds of pike have been caught in the river at night and shipped to New York and Boston, and the pirates have been enjoying a big trade. The Game Protector was notified of their illegal proceedings, and he spent the night in watching for them. Two other men were captured who were doubtless fish pirates, being in possession of a net, but not using it when captured. They were released, but the net was soized.

Lord and Lady Craven in Cleveland, CLEVELAND, April 26.-The Earl of Craven and his bride arrived here last night and are stopping at the Hollenden. They are attended by an English valet and maid servant, and carry enough baggage to supply an opera company. Their rooms, which are what are known as the bridal parlors, were handsomely decorated with cut flowers. American beauty rosss predominating, a fact which the American Countess was quick to recognize and with which she expressed much delight. The Earl and Countess will remain in the city for several days.

They Welcomed Him to Chicago. CHICAGO, April 26.-Charles McCarthy, a New York travelling salesman, stepped from a Michigan Central train at the new depot of the Illinois Central Railroad Company, at Twelfth street, last evening, and walking over the via-duct started north on Clark street. As he was near Taylor street two men stopped him, and holding revolvers in his face relieved him of his gold watch and chain and a diamond pin, which he valued at $250. They then made their escape.
